G
If today was not a crooked highway
C/G G C/G G
If tonight was not a crooked trail
C/G D G C/G
If tomorrow wasn't such a long time
G C/G D
Then lonesome would mean nothing to you at all
Gsus4 G Gsus4 C/G D C/G
Yes and only if my own true love was waitin'
G C/G D C/G
And if I could hear her heart a softly poundin'
G C/G D Gsus4
Yes, only if she was lyin' by me
G G C/G D Gsus4
Then I'd lie in my bed once again

[Verse 2]

G G C/G G
I can't see my reflection in the waters
C/G G G C/G
I can't speak the sounds that show no pain
G C/G D C/G
I can't hear the echo of my footsteps
G C/G
Or remember the sound of my own name
G C/G
Yes, and only if my own true love was waitin'
G C/G D C/G
And if I could hear her heart a softly poundin'
G C/G D C/G
Yes and only if she was lyin' by me
G C/G D Gsus4 C/G
Then I'd lie in my bed once again

[Verse 3]

G C/G G G C/G G
There's beauty in the silver, singin' river
C/G G C/G G
There's beauty in the rainbow in the sky
C/G G C/G D G
But none of these and nothing else can touch the beauty
C/G G C/G D G
That I remember in my true love's eyes
C/G G C/G D G
Yes and only if my own true love was waitin'
C/G G C/G D G
I could hear her heart a softly poundin'
C/G G C/G D C/G
Yes and only if she was lyin' by me
G C/G D D7sus2/E
Then I'd lie in my bed once again

[Outro] G C/G G D7/F#, C/G G
