There is a Time
Written by Rodney Dillard and Mitch Jayne

[Verse 1]

Dm
There is a time for love and laughter,
F Dm
The days will pass like summer storms;
F Dm
The winter wind will follow after,
A# C Dm
But there is love and love is warm.

[Chorus]

Dm
There is a time for us to wander,
F Dm
When time is young and so are we;
F Dm
The woods are greener over yonder;
A# C Dm
The path is new, the world is free.

[Verse 2]

Dm
There is a time when leaves are fallin',

F Dm
The woods are gray, the paths are old;
F Dm
The snow will come when geese are callin',
A# C Dm
You need a fire against the cold.

[Chorus]

Dm
There is a time for us to wander,
F Dm
When time is young and so are we;
F Dm
The woods are greener over yonder;
A# C Dm
The path is new, the world is free.

[Verse 3]

Dm
So do your roaming in the springtime,
F Dm
And you'll find your love in the summer su
F Dm
The frost will come and bring the harvest,
A# C Dm
And you can sleep when the day is done.

[Chorus]

Dm
There is a time for us to wander,
F Dm
When time is young and so are we;
F Dm
The woods are greener over yonder;
A# C Dm
The path is new, the world is free.

A# C Dm
The path is new, the world is free.
